DIVINE LEGACY MUSIC GROUP PROUDLY INTRODUCES THEIR NEW ARTIST

PARIS

New Voice of Seattle R&B Debuts Self-Titled Album

May 19, 2009—Seattle, WA—The release of Paris's self-titled album will be celebrated on Saturday, June 27 at the Langston Hughes Performing Arts Center. This unique one-of-a-kind performance will include the R&B sounds of Paris and his band, backed by the harmonic vibes of singers Sydney Robertson, Alisha Roney and Yorusalem Zewolday.

Opening for Paris will be hip hop artists Pain and Young Slim. Artist Truth Awakening will add his breathy baritone vibrato to the mix. The local dance troupe Kontagious Movement will also appear. •

The show is produced by Divine Legacy Music Group (DLMG), a Pacific Northwest independent label run by songwriters, musicians and performers. The show starts at 8:00 p.m. Doors open at 7:00 p.m. Tickets are $20 online at <http://www.dmgmusic.com> or $25 at the door.

There's a new kid from town

This break-out celebration of Paris's album will introduce his vibrant sound to the Seattle music scene. With hints of pop, jazz and soul, Paris's music is mellow, moveable and memorable. His crowd-grabbing hooks and lyrical stories are delivered in a variety of moods from the anguish of love lost to the hope of new love found.

From the mournful Crash to the lush Fallen, Paris has composed songs that will keep everyone out of their seats and up on their feet. Previews of these two songs are available at the DLMG web site (<http://www.dmgmusic.com>).
